Persl. Asst. to the Chief Commr., Oudh.

HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE, N.-W. P.RULES AS TO THE ADMISSION OF ATTORNEYS.

Whereas by Letters Patent erecting and establishing this High Court of Judicature for the North-Western Provinces in India, it was among other things enacted and provided by sections 7 and 8 of the said Letters Patent, that the said High Court of Judicature should approve, admit, and enrol such and so many Advocates, Vakeels, and Attorneys as to the said High Court should seem meet, and such Advocates, Vakeels, and Attorneys should be and were thereby authorized to appear for the suitors of the said High Court, and to plead or to act, or to plead and act, for the said suitors according as the said High Court might by its Rules and Directions determine. And that the said High Court should have power to make rules for the qualification and admission of proper persons to be Advocates, Vakeels, and Attorneys at law of the said High Court, and should be empowered to remove or to suspend from practice, on reasonable cause, the said Advocates, Vakeels, or Attorneys at law; and no person whatsoever, but such Advocates, Vakeels, or Attorneys should be allowed to act or to plead for, or on behalf of, any suitors in the said High Court.

And whereas it is expedient to make rules for the admission of Attorneys of this Court, accordingly.

Now it is ordered that—

I.—Any person, qualified as hereinafter provided, shall be entitled and may apply to be enrolled and admitted an Attorney of this Court,—

That is to say:—

(1.) Any person being an Attorney or Solicitor of the Superior Courts of Law or Equity in England, or Ireland, or being a Writer to the Signet Solicitor, or Law Agent of the Scotch Courts, and producing proper and sufficient legal evidence of admission and enrolment in England, Ireland, or Scotland, as the case may be, and also of good character and conduct.

(2.) Any person being an Attorney duly admitted and on the roll of Attorneys of the High Courts at Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and producing the proper certificate, or other legal evidence, of such admission and enrolment, as also a certificate of good character and conduct signed by a Judge of a High Court or of the Advocate-General, or Government Advocate, or of two of the leading Advocates in practice in the High Court of which the applicant is an Attorney.

(3.) Any person who shall hold a certificate duly made and signed by the examiners for that purpose, to be from time to time appointed by the Court, whereby it is certified that such examiners are satisfied that the applicant is fit and capable to be and to act, as an Attorney of this Court, and who may have satisfied the Court of his good character all as required by Section III. hereof, and who shall have served as a clerk continuously for at least two years under a Barrister, or Pleader, or Attorney of this or of any other of the High Courts in India of not less than five years' standing, or who shall have kept or served his articles or apprenticeship with a duly certificated Attorney or Solicitor in England, Ireland, or Scotland or in India, shall be entitled to become an Attorney of this Court.

II.—Every Attorney, before he is admitted and has his name enrolled, shall make and take a declaration before the Registrar of the Court that he will truly and honestly demean himself in the practice of an Attorney, according to his conscience and to the best of his knowledge and ability.

III.—The following Regulations are hereby made for the examination of persons desirous of being admitted Attorneys of the High Court for the North-Western Provinces, under the 3rd class of applicants, as aforesaid:—

(a.)—An examination for the admission of Attorneys shall be held from time to time, ordinarily in each year, on such day or days as the examiners appointed in this behalf may appoint.

(b.) Every person applying to be examined as aforesaid shall submit to the Registrar of this Court satisfactory testimonials of his good character and ability.

(c.) Every person so applying shall, if permitted, attend the examiners aforesaid at such place or places, and at such time or times as shall be appointed for that purpose, and shall answer such questions as the said examiners shall then and there put to him by word of mouth, or by written or printed papers, touching his fitness and capacity to act as an Attorney.

(d.) The examination shall be held on the following subjects—viz., Hindoo and Mahomedan Law. The Law of Contract. The Law of Evidence. The Law of Limitation. The Law of Registration. The Law of Stamps. The Indian Succession Act. The Indian Divorce Act. The Bills of Exchange Act. The Rent and Revenue Acts. The general principles of law as expounded in Chapters III. and VII. of Blackstone's Commentaries, or in Section II., Volume I. of Stephen's Commentaries. The Letters Patent constituting the High Court, North-Western Provinces, and the Acts regulating the procedure therein. The Code of Civil Procedure. The Indian Penal Code. The Code of Criminal Procedure, and such other Acts or Laws as may now form part of the Law of India and in future and from time to time, be duly notified.

(e.) Every person so applying shall also be obliged to satisfy the Court by report and certificate under the hands of the examiners that they are qualified to draw or prepare deeds, or other formal legal instruments, to conduct legal correspondence, to prepare briefs, statements, and cases, or other instructions for Counsel, and also memoranda or abstracts of all such documents as aforesaid, and generally to conduct and manage all legal business, in the way and manner competent to and known to the Courts and legal profession to appertain to the office and duties of an Attorney.

(f.) The report of the examiners certifying the fitness and capacity of the person so applying to be admitted as an Attorney shall be in the following form, viz. :—

In pursuance of the rules of the High Court relating to the admission of Attorneys, we, being the examiners, actually present and conducting the examination (or the major part of the examiners, as the case may be) of, &c., do hereby certify that we have examined A. B. as required by the said rules, and that the said A. B. is a fit and proper person to be admitted and enrolled, and is capable to act as an Attorney of the said Court.

(g.) The application for admission and enrolment as an Attorney of the Court shall be made to the Court by a Barrister or a Pleader. In the case of any person described in Nos. 1, 2, and 3 of Rule I. applying, the certificates or other legal evidence as required by that rule, and the reports and certificates required by Sections (e.) and (f.), Rule III., shall be presented to the Court with the application when the same is moved, and thereupon the Court may direct the enrolment of the petitioner, or make such other order as under the circumstances of the case the Court may consider proper.

By order,

HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE, N.-W. P.

RULES AS TO THE ADMISSION OF ATTORNEYS.

Whereas by Letters Patent erecting and establishing this High Court of Judicature for the North-Western Provinces in India, it was among other things enacted and provided by sections 7 and 8 of the said Letters Patent, that the said High Court of Judicature should approve, admit, and enrol such and so many Advocates, Vakeels, and Attorneys as to the said High Court should seem meet, and such Advocates, Vakeels, and Attorneys should be and were thereby authorized to appear for the suitors of the said High Court, and to plead or to act, or to plead and act, for the said suitors according as the said High Court might by its Rules and Directions determine. And that the said High Court should have power to make rules for the qualification and admission of proper persons to be Advocates, Vakeels, and Attorneys at law of the said High Court, and should be empowered to remove or to suspend from practice, on reasonable cause, the said Advocates, Vakeels, or Attorneys at law; and no person whatsoever, but such Advocates, Vakeels, or Attorneys should be allowed to act or to plead for, or on behalf of, any suitors in the said High Court.

And whereas it is expedient to make rules for the admission of Attorneys of this Court, accordingly.

Now it is ordered that—

I.—Any person, qualified as hereinafter provided, shall be entitled and may apply to be enrolled and admitted an Attorney of this Court,—

That is to say:—

(1.) Any person being an Attorney or Solicitor of the Superior Courts of Law or Equity in England, or Ireland, or being a Writer to the Signet, Solicitor, or Law Agent of the Scotch Courts, and producing proper and sufficient legal evidence of admission and enrolment in England, Ireland, or Scotland, as the case may be, and also of good character, and conduct.

(2.) Any person being an Attorney duly admitted and on the roll of Attorneys of the High Courts at Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and producing the proper certificate, or other legal evidence, of such admission and enrolment, as also a certificate of good character and conduct signed by a Judge of a High Court or of the Advocate-General, or Government Advocate, or of two of the leading Advocates in practice in the High Court of which the applicant is an Attorney.

(3.) Any person who shall hold a certificate duly made and signed by the examiners for that purpose, to be from time to time appointed by the Court, whereby it is certified that such examiners are satisfied that the applicant is fit and capable to be and to act, as an Attorney of this Court, and who may have satisfied the Court of his good character all as required by Section III. hereof, and who shall have served as a clerk continuously for at least two years under a Barrister, or Pleader, or Attorney of this or of any other of the High Courts in India of not less than five years' standing, or who shall have kept or served his articles or apprenticeship with a duly certificated Attorney or Solicitor in England, Ireland, or Scotland or in India, shall be entitled to become an Attorney of this Court.

II.—Every Attorney, before he is admitted and has his name enrolled, shall make and take a declaration before the Registrar of the Court that he will truly and honestly demean himself in the practice of an Attorney, according to his conscience and to the best of his knowledge and ability.

III.—The following Regulations are hereby made for the examination of persons desirous of being admitted Attorneys of the High Court for the North-Western Provinces, under the 3rd class of applicants, as aforesaid:—

(a.)—An examination for the admission of Attorneys shall be held from time to time, ordinarily in each year, on such day or days as the examiners appointed in this behalf may appoint.

(b.) Every person applying to be examined as aforesaid shall submit to the Registrar of this Court satisfactory testimonials of his good character and ability.

(c.) Every person so applying shall, if permitted, attend the examiners aforesaid at such place or places, and at such time or times as shall be appointed for that purpose, and shall answer such questions as the said examiners shall then and there put to him by word of mouth, or by written or printed papers, touching his fitness and capacity to act as an Attorney.

(d.) The examination shall be held on the following subjects—viz., Hindoo and Mahomedan Law. The Law of Contract. The Law of Evidence. The Law of Limitation. The Law of Registration. The Law of Stamps. The Indian Succession Act. The Indian Divorce Act. The Bills of Exchange Act. The Rent and Revenue Acts. The general principles of law as expounded in Chapters III. and VII. of Blackstone's Commentaries, or in Section II.; Volume I. of Stephen's Commentaries. The Letters Patent constituting the High Court, North-Western Provinces, and the Acts regulating the procedure therein. The Code of Civil Procedure. The Indian Penal Code. The Code of Criminal Procedure, and such other Acts or Laws as may now form part of the Law of India, and in future and from time to time, be duly notified.

(e.) Every person so applying shall also be obliged to satisfy the Court by report and certificate under the hands of the examiners that they are qualified to draw or prepare deeds, or other formal legal instruments, to conduct legal correspondence, to prepare briefs, statements, and cases, or other instructions for Counsel, and also memoranda or abstracts of all such documents as aforesaid, and generally to conduct and manage all legal business, in the way and manner competent to and known to the Courts and legal profession to appertain to the office and duties of an Attorney.

(f.) The report of the examiners certifying the fitness and capacity of the person so applying to be admitted as an Attorney shall be in the following form, viz.:—

In pursuance of the rules of the High Court relating to the admission of Attorneys, we, being the examiners, actually present and conducting the examination (or the major part of the examiners, as the case may be) of, &c., do hereby certify that we have examined A. B. as required by the said rules, and that the said A. B. is a fit and proper person to be admitted and enrolled, and is capable to act as an Attorney of the said Court.

(g.) The application for admission and enrolment as an Attorney of the Court shall be made to the Court by a Barrister or a Pleader. In the case of any person described in Nos. 1, 2, and 3 of Rule I. applying, the certificates or other legal evidence as required by that rule, and the reports and certificates required by Sections (c.) and (f.)

Rule III., shall be presented to the Court with the application when the same is moved, and thereupon the Court may direct the enrolment of the petitioner, or make such other order as under the circumstances of the case the Court may consider proper.

By order,

ALLAHABAD, } G. T. SPANKIE,

HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE, N.-W. P.

RULES AS TO THE ADMISSION OF ATTORNEYS.

Whereas by Letters Patent erecting and establishing this High Court of Judicature for the North-Western Provinces in India, it was among other things enacted and provided by sections 7 and 8 of the said Letters Patent, that the said High Court of Judicature should approve, admit, and enrol such and so many Advocates, Vakeels, and Attorneys as to the said High Court should seem meet, and such Advocates, Vakeels, and Attorneys should be and were thereby authorized to appear for the suitors of the said High Court, and to plead or to act, or to plead and act, for the said suitors according as the said High Court might by its Rules and Directions determine. And that the said High Court should have power to make rules for the qualification and admission of proper persons to be Advocates, Vakeels, and Attorneys at law of the said High Court, and should be empowered to remove or to suspend from practice, on reasonable cause, the said Advocates, Vakeels, or Attorneys at law; and no person whatsoever, but such Advocates, Vakeels, or Attorneys should be allowed to act or to plead for, or on behalf of, any suitors in the said High Court.

And whereas it is expedient to make rules for the admission of Attorneys of this Court, accordingly.

Now it is ordered that—

I.—Any person, qualified as hereinafter provided, shall be entitled and may apply to be enrolled and admitted an Attorney of this Court.—

That is to say:—

(1.) Any person being an Attorney or Solicitor of the Superior Courts of Law or Equity in England, or Ireland, or being a Writer to the Signet, Solicitor, or Law Agent of the Scotch Courts, and producing proper and sufficient legal evidence of admission and enrolment in England, Ireland, or Scotland, as the case may be, and also of good character and conduct.

(2.) Any person being an Attorney duly admitted and on the roll of Attorneys of the High Courts at Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and producing the proper certificate, or other legal evidence, of such admission and enrolment, as also a certificate of good character and conduct signed by a Judge of a High Court or of the Advocate-General, or Government Advocate, or of two of the leading Advocates in practice in the High Court of which the applicant is an Attorney.

(3.) Any person who shall hold a certificate duly made and signed by the examiners for that purpose, to be from time to time appointed by the Court, whereby it is certified that such examiners are satisfied that the applicant is fit and capable to be and to act, as an Attorney of this Court, and who may have satisfied the Court of his good character all as required by Section III. hereof, and who shall have served as a clerk continuously for at least two years under a Barrister, or Pleader, or Attorney of this or of any other of the High Courts in India of not less than five years' standing, or who shall have kept or served his articles or apprenticeship with a duly certificated Attorney or Solicitor in England, Ireland, or Scotland or in India, shall be entitled to become an Attorney of this Court.

II.—Every Attorney, before he is admitted and has his name enrolled, shall make and take a declaration before the Registrar of the Court that he will truly and honestly demean himself in the practice of an Attorney, according to his conscience and to the best of his knowledge and ability.

III.—The following Regulations are hereby made for the examination of persons desirous of being admitted Attorneys of the High Court for the North-Western Provinces, under the 3rd class of applicants, as aforesaid:—

(a.)—An examination for the admission of Attorneys shall be held from time to time, ordinarily in each year, on such day or days as the examiners appointed in this behalf may appoint.

(b.) Every person applying to be examined as aforesaid shall submit to the Registrar of this Court satisfactory testimonials of his good character and ability.

(c.) Every person so applying shall, if permitted, attend the examiners aforesaid at such place or places, and at such time or times as shall be appointed for that purpose, and shall answer such questions as the said examiners shall then and there put to him by word of mouth, or by written or printed papers, touching his fitness and capacity to act as an Attorney.

(d.) The examination shall be held on the following subjects—viz., Hindoo and Mahomedan Law. The Law of Contract. The Law of Evidence. The Law of Limitation. The Law of Registration. The Law of Stamps. The Indian Succession Act. The Indian Divorce Act. The Bills of Exchange Act. The Rent and Revenue Acts. The general principles of law as expounded in Chapters III. and VII. of Blackstone's Commentaries, or in Section II., Volume I. of Stephen's Commentaries. The Letters Patent constituting the High Court, North-Western Provinces, and the Acts regulating the procedure therein. The Code of Civil Procedure. The Indian Penal Code. The Code of Criminal Procedure, and such other Acts or Laws as may now form part of the Law of India, and in future and from time to time, be duly notified.

(e.) Every person so applying shall also be obliged to satisfy the Court by report and certificate under the hands of the examiners that they are qualified to draw or prepare deeds, or other formal legal instruments, to conduct legal correspondence, to prepare briefs, statements, and cases, or other instructions for Counsel, and also memoranda or abstracts of all such documents as aforesaid, and generally to conduct and manage all legal business, in the way and manner competent to and known to the Courts and legal profession to appertain to the office and duties of an Attorney.

(f.) The report of the examiners certifying the fitness and capacity of the person so applying to be admitted as an Attorney shall be in the following form, viz.:—

In pursuance of the rules of the High Court relating to the admission of Attorneys, we, being the examiners, actually present and conducting the examination (or the major part of the examiners, as the case may be) of, &c., do hereby certify that we have examined A. B. as required by the said rules, and that the said A. B. is a fit and proper person to be admitted and enrolled, and is capable to act as an Attorney of the said Court.

(g.) The application for admission and enrolment as an Attorney of the Court shall be made to the Court by a Barrister or a Pleader. In the case of any person described in Nos. 1, 2, and 3 of Rule I. applying, the certificates or other legal evidence as required by that rule, and the reports and certificates required by Sections (e.) and (f.), Rule III., shall be presented to the Court with the application when the same is moved, and thereupon the Court may direct the enrolment of the petitioner, or make such other order as under the circumstances of the case the Court may consider proper.

By order,
